

Hodgson Russ's Florida Family & Marital Law Practice Group attorneys have extensive experience representing individuals and families in all areas of Florida family and marital law. Our attorneys provide professional counsel that is attuned to the legal, emotional, and financial needs of our clients. We are committed to providing quality legal representation.

Matrimonial Matters

Prenuptial, postnuptial, and cohabitation agreements allow couples to decide how their property, finances, and family issues will be handled in the case of divorce or death. Our attorneys are experienced with all aspects of these important proactive documents.

When a divorce, separation, or annulment does occur, Hodgson Russ's family law attorneys bring extensive experience to the process of negotiating and mediating a settlement. If proceeding to court is necessary, our skilled trial attorneys aggressively advocate for clients.

Custody and Support

Hodgson Russ family law attorneys represent clients with a wide range of child custody and support-related needs, including the following:

- ▶ Enforcement of out-of-state support awards
- ▶ Post-judgment modification or enforcement of custody, spousal, and child-support awards
- ▶ Paternity
- ▶ Guardian ad litem and attorney ad litem services (a guardian ad litem is a person appointed by the court to look out for the best interests of a child during the course of legal proceedings)
- ▶ International custody (as specified in the Hague Convention)

Other Family Issues

Every family has different needs, so Hodgson Russ's practice is not limited to spousal and child-related issues. Some examples of our other family law services include advising on mental-health assessment, commitment proceedings, and issues involving the care of children and the elderly.

Hodgson Russ attorneys also provide services in bankruptcy-related matrimonial issues and assist clients in navigating the complex bankruptcy system.

As a full-service law firm with attorneys practicing in all major areas of law, our family law clients have easy access to attorneys concentrating in such related areas as federal and multistate taxation, estate and trust planning, real property, and all areas of family business law.

Sharing our Knowledge

In addition to providing experienced legal representation, we also assist clients by offering annual seminars about divorce law issues for accountants and mental health professionals.

Our attorneys also frequently publish articles on important family law issues, and they co-chair committees focused on creating better laws and access to the courts.
