

FEDERAL TAX ATTORNEY

Hodgson Russ LLP is seeking an attorney for its Federal and International Tax practice group in the firm's New York City office. The ideal candidate will have four or more years of experience in complex tax planning and advanced knowledge in the partnership, international and/or transactional tax areas.

Hodgson Russ is a 200-attorney law firm with a dynamic US tax practice, including through its offices in New York and Toronto. The candidate would be joining an overall tax practice of approximately 40 lawyers who regularly engage in complex tax planning, including in the partnership, corporate, international and high net worth areas. This is a terrific opportunity for an entrepreneurial-minded candidate. Strong academic credentials and excellent written and verbal communication skill, a collaborative nature, and a business development orientation are required.
