

REAL ESTATE and FINANCE ASSOCIATE - BUFFALO

Hodgson Russ LLP is seeking a Real Estate and Finance attorney with four or more years of experience for its Buffalo office. This position provides the opportunity to work in a highly collaborative environment on sophisticated legal matters.

The successful candidate will have experience handling commercial leasing, purchases and sales of commercial property and real estate finance matters. Experience drafting, negotiating and closing transactions is important. Experience with construction matters, tax issues and cross-border matters is a plus. Strong academic credentials and excellent written and verbal communication skills are also required.

Please click here to submit a resume, cover letter and transcripts.