

FLORIDA RESIDENCY

How you know you have it, and what you may want to do if another state says you don't

This seminar provides information on income tax, homestead, and estate planning issues and guidance on how you may be able to reduce taxes, protect assets, and avoid pitfalls when moving from another state or maintaining dual residences.

Wednesday, January 18, 2012
Boca Raton, Florida; 9 a.m.

Wednesday, January 18, 2012
Palm Beach, Florida; 2 p.m.

Thursday, January 19, 2012
Miami, Florida; 9 a.m.

Wednesday, February 15, 2012
Naples, Florida; 2 p.m.

Thursday, February 16, 2012
Palm Beach, Florida; 2 p.m.

This seminar is approved for 2 hours of technical business continuing professional education credit by the Florida Department of Business & Professional Regulation, Sponsor/Provider #0002615, Course #0005136, Exp. 9/27/13; accepted by the CFP Board for 2 hours continuing education credit, Sponsor/Provider #3503, Exp. 12/31/12, and pending approval by The Florida Bar for 2.5 hours of general CLER credit.

FLORIDA RESIDENCY

Our speakers will provide information about compliance with state residency rules. Unfortunately, many people have learned about these rules the hard way. With good intentions, they did all the things they thought they needed to do in order to take up residency outside of their old state—they filed affidavits of domicile in the new state, registered their automobiles in that state, obtained new driver's licenses, and registered to vote. Sounds like they did all the right things, right?

Wrong! Most people aren't aware that a residency determination is based on more than mere declarations or physical presence in the state. In a residency case, the burden of proof is on the taxpayer. Even after you've moved out of one state, if you maintain living quarters in that state and visit from time to time, you may still be considered a resident of that state for tax purposes.

Do you have significant non-Florida contacts? If you do, you may be a prime target for an audit, and you may benefit from this seminar.

This seminar will provide you with information on issues that may be beneficial in protecting your assets and avoiding pitfalls when moving out of a state or maintaining dual residences:

- ♦ New Residency and Allocation Issues
- ♦ Proactive Preparation for Nonresident Audits
- ♦ New Estate Tax Legislation: What Does It Mean?
- ♦ Florida: What's Different?
- ♦ What Is Statutory Residence and Why Should You Care?
- ♦ Current Planning Techniques (Including an Update on Family Limited Partnerships)
- ♦ Protecting Your Assets and Reducing Tax on Transfers to Your Family
- ♦ Other Hot Topics

This seminar will also provide information on residency law for:

- ♦ Individuals With Dual Residences
- ♦ Non-Florida Residents
- ♦ In-House Tax Counsel
- ♦ Accountants
- ♦ Tax Managers
- ♦ Financial Planners
- ♦ Insurance Executives
- ♦ High-Net-Worth Individuals

The Renaissance Hotel, Boca Raton

2000 Northwest 19th Street, Boca Raton, Florida, 33431 Tel. 561.368.5252 www.marriott.com

The Ritz-Carlton, Palm Beach

100 South Ocean Boulevard, Manalapan, Florida 33462 Tel. 561.533.6000 www.ritzcarlton.com

Four Seasons Hotel, Miami

1435 Brickell Avenue, Miami, Florida 33131 Tel. 305.381.3088 www.fourseasons.com

The Ritz-Carlton, Naples

280 Vanderbilt Beach Road, Naples, Florida, 34108 Tel. 239.598.3300 www.ritzcarlton.com

Facilities are wheelchair accessible.

Advertisement

ABOUT THE SPONSOR

Hodgson Russ has offices in Palm Beach, Florida; Albany, Buffalo, Johnstown, and New York, New York; and Toronto, Canada. In addition to tax and estates and trusts, Hodgson Russ's practice includes corporate, mergers and acquisitions, securities, intellectual property, real estate, litigation, and most other areas of U.S. law.

The following Hodgson Russ practice areas may be of special interest to those attending the seminar:

State and Local Tax Issues

- ♦ Counseling clients in the areas of tax law, including residency, sales and use, corporate franchise, personal income, estate and gift, and allocation of income considerations, among others

Snowbird Considerations

- ♦ Advising high-net-worth new (or soon-to-be-new) Florida residents on tax issues arising from multistate lifestyles

Lobbying and Tax Planning

- ♦ Advocating for or against change in the tax laws and regulations before the legislature and Florida Tax Department and the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance
- ♦ Providing "early warning" services that alert clients to legislative and administrative developments
- ♦ Formulating overall state tax strategies, including planning and compliance techniques, as well as developing agendas for legislative action

Information for Accountants, Financial Planners, and Attorneys

- ♦ Providing information that may prove helpful in resolving or avoiding federal and state tax problems

Estates and Trusts Matters

- ♦ Structuring estate plans to try to minimize or avoid estate taxes
- ♦ Establishing and working with private foundations
- ♦ Setting up residence trusts (QPRTs), charitable trusts (CLATs or CRUTs), annuity trusts (GRATs), insurance trusts, and others
- ♦ Drafting "spendthrift" trusts
- ♦ Advising clients about living trusts and other probate-avoidance techniques to try to reduce costs of estate administration
- ♦ Preparing wills, trust agreements, family partnership agreements, and related documents
- ♦ Handling estate disputes through arbitration or litigation

While primary emphasis will be on New York's approach to residency issues, the concepts discussed are applicable throughout the United States.

For more information, contact Mandy Pickering at mpickering@hodgsonruss.com

SPEAKERS

Paul R. Comeau is the co-chairman of Hodgson Russ and is based in our Palm Beach and New York City offices. He concentrates his practice in estate and tax planning, taxation law, business planning law, and business acquisitions law. He is co-editor of New York Tax Service, co-editor of New York Tax Cases, and co-chair of the Multistate Tax Committee of the New York State Bar Association Tax Section. He is co-author of CCH's New York Residency and Allocation Audit Handbook and NYSBA's Contesting New York Tax Assessments. He is admitted to practice in Florida (1975) and New York (1974).

Katherine E. Cauley concentrates her practice in all aspects of U.S. and Canada/U.S. cross-border tax and estate planning and administration, private foundations and charitable giving, trust administration, and business succession planning. She is a past contributor to Canadian Tax Highlights, and she recently co-authored "Broadening New York's Decanting Statute" for New York Law Journal, September 2011. She is also co-author of Taxation of Distributions from Qualified Plans, a treatise published by Warren, Gorham, and Lamont of the RIA Group, and she speaks regularly on estates and trusts issue. Ms. Cauley is admitted in New York; she is not admitted to The Florida Bar.

Leslie R. Kellogg counsels clients on advantageous business structures for tax and estate planning purposes. Her practice often focuses on cross-border matters, including structuring considerations in purchasing U.S. real estate, business expansion into the United States, tax considerations in private and public offerings, and the application of U.S. anti-deferral regimes. She also regularly counsels clients on U.S. tax compliance matters and the ramifications of relinquishment of U.S. citizenship or lawful permanent status. Ms. Kellogg has spoken on cross-border tax issues for the Council of American States in Canada, the New York State Bar Association, the Ontario Tax Conference, and the Canadian Tax Foundation. She is admitted to practice in New York and before the U.S. Tax Court; she is not admitted to The Florida Bar.

Mark S. Klein has extensive federal, multistate, state, and local tax experience. He is a past instructor of state taxation and tax practice and procedure at the University at Buffalo School of Management Tax Certificate Program and is chair of the State and Local Taxation Section of the ACE Accounting Society. Mr. Klein is editor of New York Tax Highlights; contributing editor of CCH's Guidebook to New York Taxes; and co-author of CCH's New York Residency and Allocation Audit Handbook, CCH's New York Sales and Use Tax Answer Book, and NYSBA's Contesting New York Tax Assessments. Mr. Klein is admitted to practice in New York (1983), in Florida (1983), and before the U.S. Supreme Court.

Timothy P. Noonan concentrates his practice in state and local tax law with a focus on New York State and City tax issues. Mr. Noonan lectures frequently on New York State and multistate tax matters and is on the faculty of the Institute of Continuing Professional Education. He is the author of a monthly column, "Noonan's Notes on Tax Practice," in State Tax Notes, and he has written on state and local taxes for a number of U.S. and Canadian publications. Mr. Noonan is admitted in New York; he is not admitted to The Florida Bar.

Harold J. Ruvoldt concentrates his practice in complex civil litigation, white-collar criminal defense, corporate governance, and corporate operational restructuring, and he has extensive experience related to estates and right of inheritance, as well as income tax fraud. Mr. Ruvoldt is admitted to practice in New York; New Jersey; U.S. Supreme Court; U.S. Courts of Appeals for the Second, Third, Seventh, Ninth, and District of Columbia Circuits; and U.S. District Courts for New Jersey, Southern and Eastern New York, and the District of Columbia; he is not admitted to The Florida Bar.

REGISTER TODAY

PLEASE CHECK THE SEMINAR YOU WOULD LIKE TO ATTEND.

- Wednesday, January 18, 2012, Boca Raton, Renaissance Boca Raton Hotel, 2000 N.W. 19th Street, 9 to 11 a.m. (RSVP by January 11)
- Wednesday, January 18, 2012, Palm Beach, The Ritz-Carlton, 100 South Ocean Boulevard, 2 to 4 p.m. (RSVP by January 11)
- Thursday, January 19, 2012, Miami, Four Seasons Hotel, 1435 Brickell Avenue, 9 to 11 a.m. (RSVP by January 11)
- Wednesday, February 15, 2012, Naples, The Ritz-Carlton, 280 Vanderbilt Beach Road, 2 to 4 p.m. (RSVP by February 8)
- Thursday, February 16, 2012, Palm Beach, The Ritz-Carlton, 100 South Ocean Boulevard, 2 to 4 p.m. (RSVP by February 8)

I cannot attend but would appreciate a phone call from a Hodgson Russ attorney.

These seminars are complimentary. Space is limited.

Please register early through our website, e-mail, mail, fax, or by phone:

Mandy Pickering at Hodgson Russ LLP

450 Royal Palm Way, 6th Floor, Palm Beach, Florida 33480

mpickering@hodgsonruss.com ♦ Tel: 561.862.4100 ♦ Fax: 561.862.4120

www.hodgsonruss.com

Name: _____

Company: _____

Title: _____

Address: _____

City/State/Zip: _____

E-mail: _____

(Please provide e-mail. Confirmations will be e-mailed to all attendees.)

Phone/Fax: _____

Names of additional people attending: _____

License # (for CPE): _____

450 Royal Palm Way, 6th Floor
Palm Beach, Florida 33480

FLORIDA RESIDENCY

How you know you have it, and what you may want to do if another state says you don't

Advertisement