United States Law Firm Group

Hodgson Russ is proud to serve companies across North America and around the world, ranging from major, multinational technology, service, and industrial companies to emerging start-ups and small family businesses.

To help serve these clients, we use our position as the New York State member of the United States Law Firm Group (USLFG), a national network of 18 top law firms in the country’s leading commercial states, to provide extensive knowledge and understanding of local and regional policies and practices and to refer work as necessary.

Many of the USLFG firms have offices outside the United States, and all of the firms have extensive experience with lawyers and law firms around the globe. Membership in USLFG provides all of the firm’s clients with effective assistance in selecting competent counsel in all of the significant commercial countries in the world.
